

Remind your clients of appointments, check-ups and offers, by text or voice

With Reminder Time on your side you can keep your clients reminded of upcoming appointments, annual health checks, offers or special announcements, by text or voice. Because Reminder Time is 2-way messaging as standard, you can also get a response from them, allowing you to re-offer cancelled appointment slots, or get feedback on your services.

SMS Text Messaging

Send to mobile phones for instant broadcast straight to the people you need to reach

Voice messaging

Text-to-speech conversion of your message enables you to reach those with fixed line phones

2-way or 1-Way

Reminder Time has 2-way messaging as standard, but you don't have to ask for a reply. It's your choice

Customise your message

Tailor your message exactly how you want it. Customise up to 3 different responses

shorttime to suit your need
