

Chinese Whispers

Hi, I have a contractor booked for 3.30pm. Will you be in?

No, I am out all day. What about 10.30am tomorrow?

I'll call him to find out

Hi, I've spoken to my tenant. She can't do 3.30. What about 10.30 tomorrow?

Sorry, I have another job all day. I could make Friday morning, say 9.30?

I'll call her to find out. Talk to you later

Hi, its me again. The contractor can't make it tomorrow. But he suggested Friday at 9.30. Please call me back when you get this message...

... sound familiar?

Do you find that you spend a disproportionate amount of time on the phone trying to arrange mutually convenient times for your contractors and tenants?

3 Way Communication

Reminder Time is the only appointment reminder system on the market that offers 2-way reminders not only by text message but also by voice. Not only that but we also offer 3 way communication, allowing you to coordinate between tenant and contractor automatically. No more
